

KMPDU Volunteer Mentorship Program

Have you completed your final-year MBChB, BDS, BPharm and are eager to make a meaningful impact on the medical profession? KMPDU invites you to apply for our exclusive Mentorship Program. This is a unique chance to connect with senior colleagues, seasoned medical leaders, explore engagement opportunities and advocacy as you gain invaluable career insights.

Program Details:

- Eligibility: Completed undergraduate or within the last one month of your undergraduate studies.
- Commitment: Full commitment with flexibility beyond regular schedules required.
- Duration 4-6 months.
- Internship Status: Not suitable for interns, post-interns and those engaged in other obligations.
- Qualities: Reliable, honest, diligent, responsible, responsive, dynamic team players with a genuine passion for contributing to healthcare sector in Kenya. Emphasis on diligence and meeting timelines.
- Mode: Participation is blended (office-based, virtual or both) and on rotation.

Roles and Responsibilities:

1. Engagement: Actively participate in mentorship sessions colleagues and leaders.
2. Contribution: Engage in discussions and projects that support KMPDU & health sector.
3. Collaboration: Work effectively with peers and mentors to achieve program goals.
4. Representation: Represent KMPDU at events and meetings as assigned accordingly, showcasing the program's impact and promptly submitting and filing reports
5. Feedback: Provide feedback on the mentorship experience and suggest improvements.
6. Correspondence: Report and update KMPDU on grassroots activities
7. Ambassadorship: Explain complex union policies and matters to colleagues and peers.

How to Apply:

- CV & Mission Statement: Send a brief one-page CV and mission statement to volunteermentorship@kmpdu.org
- Confidentiality: All application communications must remain confidential.
- Canvassing will lead to automatic disqualification
- The decision communicated will be final.

This volunteer position offers a unique opportunity to gain mentorship and contribute to the advancement of the medical field. If you're enthusiastic about making a difference and fully engaging in this role, we encourage you to apply!

Application Deadline: 2nd September 2024

For more information, contact us at volunteermentorship@kmpdu.org.

We look forward to your application!